

February 01, 2010

MEDIA ADVISORY

For immediate release

Squamish Media Centre Available February 1 – 28, 2010

SQUAMISH, BC - In order to facilitate and coordinate media inquiries in Squamish during the 2010 Olympic Games, Tourism Squamish in cooperation with the District of Squamish will operate a Media Centre based out of the Squamish Adventure Centre, effective February 1, 2010.

The Squamish Media Centre will be available to working media during the 2010 Olympic Games, February 1 – 28, 2010. It will be open as follows:

February 1-11      9:00 am – 5:00 pm
February 12- 28    8:00 am –8:00 pm

The Squamish Adventure Centre is located at the intersection of Highway 99 and Cleveland Avenue (google maps). It features complimentary workspace, high-speed internet connections, a café and quiet rooms for interviews. Printing and photocopying services are available at a nominal fee.

The Squamish Media Centre may be contacted as follows:

media@tourismsquamish.com
604.815.5080 (dial 1 from Vancouver)

The Squamish Media Centre will provide Squamish story leads, facilitate interviews (with local spokespeople), provide access to HD footage of the region, photos, and other services as required. For a sample of the HD video available see Spirit of Squamish HD Video.

If you wish to contact the District of Squamish directly they can be reached during regular business hours (Monday – Thursday 8:30 am – 5:30pm, Friday 8:30pm – 4:30pm) as follows:

604. 892.5217
1.877.892.5217 (toll free)
604.681.2469 (direct from Vancouver)

-30-

For further information please contact us as above.